HERE 20 YEARS AGO
ENGAGED IN MINING

William Oakes, a veteran Elk of Salt Lake City, motored into Tonopah yesterday over the same ground which he traveled twenty years ago when he traversed the site of this camp on his way to the Sylvania lead silver mines in Palmetto canyon. Mr. Oakes has been engaged in mining for over thirty years and is on his way back to the old Sylvania which recently opened a large body of rich silver-lead ore. The Sylvania was one of the noted producers in 1896 and is likely to repeat the production of that year.

Right Thing to Find Out.
